

January 2008

Dear General Motors Customer:

As the owner of a 2002, 2003, or 2004 model year Buick Rendezvous; or a 2001, 2002, 2003, or 2004 model year Chevrolet Venture; Pontiac Aztek or Montana, your satisfaction with our product is very important to us.

This letter is intended to make you aware that your vehicle may develop a small crack at the base of the fuel fill tube near the fuel tank that can allow fuel vapors to escape and cause liquid fuel to drop to the ground during refueling and normal driving.

Do not take your vehicle to your GM dealer as a result of this letter unless you believe that your vehicle has the condition as described above.

What We Have Done: General Motors is providing owners with additional protection for the condition described above. If this condition occurs on your 2002, 2003, or 2004 model year Buick Rendezvous; or 2001, 2002, 2003, or 2004 model year Chevrolet Venture; Pontiac Aztek or Montana within 10 years of the date your vehicle was originally placed in service or 150,000 miles (240,000 km), whichever occurs first, the condition will be repaired for you at no charge.

What You Should Do: Repairs and adjustments qualifying under this special coverage must be performed by a General Motors dealer. If you believe your vehicle has this condition, you may want to call the service department at your dealer to find out how long they will need to have your vehicle so that you may schedule the appointment at a time that is convenient for you. This will also allow your dealer to order parts if they are not already in stock. Keep this letter with your other important glove box literature for future reference.

Reimbursement: The enclosed form explains what reimbursement is available and how to request reimbursement if you have paid for repairs for the special coverage condition.

If you have any questions or need any assistance, just contact your dealer or the appropriate Customer Assistance Center at the number listed below. The Customer Assistance Center's hours of operation are from 8:00 AM to 11:00 PM, EST, Monday through Friday.
