IMPORTANT - VW Diagnostic Content V2.36.5 Delayed

IMPORTANT

Colleagues,

Further to our previous email broadcast on this issue as it relates to Recall 69Q9...

Due to matters beyond our control, the release of Diagnostic Content V2.36.5 has been delayed. We are not informed of an ETA at this time.

As a result, please defer performance of Recall 69Q9 on diagnostic devices until such time that they are updated with V2.36.5.

We apologize for the inconvenience.
