Title: Bus Air Conditioning Service Contacts for HVAC Information

Applies To: All Bus Models

CHANGE LOG

Please refer to the change log text box below for recent changes to this article:

04/13/2020 - Added additional supplier information. Added Change Log

DESCRIPTION

Bus air conditioning systems are available from the factory (Trans/Air) and are also installed after the units have been released to the Dealer and Customer. The following Air Conditioning Manufacturer contact information can be used to obtain technical assistance, warranty and installer information from the manufacturer.

Prior to contacting the manufacturer, obtain as many major component serial numbers as possible. The major component serial numbers needed include the compressor, evaporator and condenser.
