Product Change Notice - Baggage door center seal on the solid hinge design

Dear Valued Customer:

Please be advised, LCI intends to make an improvement to the center seal on the solid hinge design for 07 and 08 series baggage doors (Fig. 1 and 2).

Testing determined the new seal material has better adhesion and improved moisture mitigation than the current material. There is no other change in fit, form, function, installation or operation of the door with the new seal.

The part number for the current seal is 808968 . The part number for the new seal is 810843 . The change will begin mid to late November.
