Product Change Notice - Electric leveling controller 307272 obsolete

Dear Valued Customer:

As part of an effort to improve quality, upgrade hardware, and to consolidate part numbers, Lippert intends to obsolete electronic leveling controller part number 307272. The controller will be replaced by part number 807615. The electronics kit number for related leveling systems will also change from 689977 to 689975, which is already being used for kits with the 807615 controller.

All controller connections and installation instructions are the same for both controllers. There is no change in functionality with the controller replacement.

The change will be made on a running basis.
